JNU Celebrated International Women's Day

An interactive seminar was organized at Jodhpur National University as part of The International Women's Day celebrations on 8th March, 2013 in an incredibly amazing manner.

Senior Member from Board of Management at JNU, Mrs. Sarita Mehta expressed, "The story of women's struggle for equality belongs to no single feminist nor to any one organization but to the collective efforts of all who care about human rights"

Dr Annapurna Mathur, the Professor and Head of the Department of Gynaecology at the Jodhpur Medical College Hospital elaborated on diseases of women and discussed methods of prevention and cure.

Mrs. Jyoti Kathju spoke on Empowerment of Women

.She added that women in India had been empowered since times immemorial. She discussed Draupadi, Mother Teresa, Sita and Kalpana Chawla all immensely powerful women with the indomitable spirit. She added that the women of the 21st Century had many idols they could be inspired by.

Vice-Principal of Jodhpur

Dental College Hospital, Dr.Sumita Kaswan delivered the vote of thanks. A student of the Dental College Alka Vyas composed a beautiful poem during the interaction and recited it right then.

Mrs. Rita Balani also graced the occasion by her presence. The programme was anchored by Neha Soni (Assistant Registrar, JNU).
